Robert Cipriano Scholarship

This Scholarship was established in honor of a dear friend of our school district – Mr. Robert Cipriano. For Bob athletics was always a vital component in a child’s educational experience and this fund was established to keep that memory alive in the minds of our students. Taking the top student who exemplifies this in their life is a way to encourage health & wellness as a lifestyle. Below are the requirements that will need to be fulfilled in order for a student to be considered for this scholarship.

- ◇ A $500 scholarship will be awarded to a boy or girl from each high school (Dearborn, Fordson & Edsel Ford).
- ◇ Student must have participated in at least one full season of Cross Country, Track, Softball, or Baseball during any of their four years of high school (varsity status not required)
- ◇ Student must have a minimum GPA of 2.8 or higher (transcript)
- ◇ Letter of acceptance to a college or university
- ◇ Student must submit a 500 word essay on how athletics has played a part or helped to make them a better student
- ◇ Referral letter from a coach, teacher or administrator of the school they attend

Please submit the application packet by no later than April 30, 2017. You can mail in your packet to the address below, or email it to dbnedfoundation@dearbornschools.org.
